

Haiti: A Briefing for Philanthropy

Tuesday, March 16, 2010

9:00-11:00 a.m.

Grand Ballroom A-C, Lobby Level

L'Enfant Plaza Hotel

480 L'Enfant Plaza, SW

Washington, DC 20024

Join the Council on Foundations for a funders' briefing about the next steps for philanthropy in the rebuilding effort of Haiti. Our panel will discuss the work already underway in Haiti and how philanthropy will play a crucial role in the long-term rebuilding efforts. To register for this event or for more information please e-mail haitibriefing@cof.org with your name, title, and organization.

Panelists include:

The Honorable Timothy Wirth
President, United Nations Foundation

Javier Alberto Soto
President, Dade Community Foundation

Amitabh Desai
Director of Foreign Policy, William J. Clinton Foundation

David Etwiler
Executive Director, Medtronic Foundation

Note: This is not a fund raiser or a briefing just for prospective donors. Rather, this is an update for all of philanthropy regarding the work of philanthropy and the needs of Haiti resulting from the most recent disaster.

